

STAGEACCESS ALUMNI - a selection of voices....

Tracey helped me discover my voice and my passion to share it and to cement confidence in my curiosity, which I hope will accompany me both professionally and personally.

Thanks to her mentoring I was able to actually enjoy drama school auditions and get accepted.

She is an empathetic, insightful and fun teacher you can truly rely on.

Tracey Grey hat mich definitiv grundsätzlich in meiner künstlerischen Laufbahn beeinflusst. Nach jahrelanger Zusammenarbeit weiß ich ihr Feingefühl beim Schauspiel/Performen sehr zu schätzen. Sie weiß genau, worauf es ankommt und coacht auf das nächste Ziel hin, fokussiert und direkt. Tracey ist eine Person voller Energie und Charisma, ich würde bei jeder Gelegenheit wieder mit ihr arbeiten!

After years of working together I appreciate Tracey most for her tactfulness. She knows exactly what is important and manages to stick to your goals, with a special kind of focus and kindness. Tracey is a person full of energy and charisma, I would always choose to work with her again!

I've known Tracey since the age of 4 (so she's been through it all with me;)). She has always been a big part of my life artistically, but also helping me with real-life-every-day-problems. She has been the person I turn to for advice and she has been mentoring me, especially for the past few years ever since I started training with her within the Stageaccess programme.

She prepared me for my auditions to apply for drama schools whilst mentoring me through confusion, ups and downs and decisions I had to make. Auditioning can be a whirlwind of emotions:).

I still turn to Tracey for advice and I am so happy and grateful to have her in my life.

Tracey Grey's StageAccess Course helped me find a better connection with myself and my body. Body tension, singing, charisma and, of course, acting helped me in my personal and career development.

I didn't make it to an acting school in the end, but working with Tracey changed my life forever and really strengthened my self-confidence. I feel much safer today in public appearances and can still use everything I have learned to my profession as a journalist and stylist very well.

The coaching and support that Tracey gave me when preparing my audition monologues for drama school was amazing. She genuinely cares for her students and provided me with great professional and personal advice. Not only did she make it possible for me to get accepted into drama school, but also equipped me with a lot of knowledge that gave me a head start in my acting studies.

I have often been commended on my professional attitude, focus and discipline. I learnt all this from Tracey.

From the moment I told her that a life in the theater was my goal, she started to prepare me. She pushes you that extra mile, but is there with you at the finishing line. Without her, I so wouldn't be where I am now.
Happy.

Tracey was truly invested in helping my colleagues, friends and me achieve our big dreams. She opened a space for big dreams and grand fantasies and then concretely helped pave the way towards them.

Crossing that bridge as a young person is a sticky, rocky and confusing experience and can be full of joy, surprise but also failure and pain. Tracey was there for us as a teacher with formal and technical guidance for the audition process, which was invaluable at the time.

She was also there as a person, who knew the harshness and the pain that industry can cause, she was friend in the times where we needed a hug or a nudge towards building thicker skin. I am certainly thankful for her dedicated, loving and passionate work over the years and consider myself very lucky that our paths crossed so long ago.
